Creative Australia - International Residencies

4 December 2023

To whom it may concern,

The Katharine Susannah Prichard Foundation Inc selected Pip Brennan for Fellowship at the KSP Writers' Centre for our 2024 program, following an outstanding application. This year, we received several applications of high standard which made the selection process a difficult one.

Pip's proposed project and writing sample were engaging, and her clear vision for the work made the Selection Panel feel certain this was a project well worth the support. As Pip's project is a historical fiction novel set in France, receiving the Keesing Studio Residency in Paris would enable her to conduct relevant research for her novel, while also providing the time and space needed for its completion.

KSP Writers' Centre endorses Pip as a talented and dedicated Australian writer whose work is worthy of a residency. Please feel free to contact me should you need to discuss this further.

Yours sincerely

Sofija Stevanovic Coordinator
KSP Writers' Centre

The Foundation is dedicated to providing a Writers' Centre and related community activities at Katharine's Place, the former home of Katharine Susannah Prichard (1883-1969) the internationally celebrated author of Coonardoo, Working Bullocks and many other novels, stories and plays.
